

FLOURISHING QUEENS

Meet four of our Queens who are blazing trails!

FLOURISHING QUEENS

Alnastazia Watson was successful in her campaign for Presidency of the National Secondary Students' Council (NSSC) for the 2016-2017 academic year. The NSSC is the governing body for students' councils in public secondary schools island-wide.

She is the first female president of the NSSC since 2008

FLOURISHING QUEENS

Ashamoy Blair earned a Gold Medal for her performance of the piece ‘Fi Wi Island’ during the 2016 JCDC Speech Festival. She has continued on a golden path, representing her school at several events since.

Winners of the Shortwood Branch Library Essay Competition

Two of our students were awarded first and second place in the annual Shortwood Branch Library Essay Competition.

Orlanda Ellis of 4J, seen receiving her basket and trophy, was awarded first place.

Khallejhay Terrelonge of 4T was awarded second place.

Thanks to the members of the English Department who prepared the students!
